Comments to improve course

(PAF 3401) Thank you, Dr. Valente. I appreciate your flexibility and due diligence during these unprecedented times. I was worried that I would not be able to learn statistics at home, but you made it a breeze. I actually looked forward to coming to your class. I am super grateful that I waited to take your class until my final semester at Baruch (#Classof2020). I wish you good luck in your next steps in life. Keep up the great work !

(PAF 3401) It was a pleasure being in this class, and although it was challenged by the pandemic, I do not think that my education was severely disturbed

(PAF 3401) Really enjoyed the class, especially how you addressed course material in terms of real-world situations.

(PAF 3401) Professor, you have truly been super helpful. Keep at it.

(PAF 3401) Prof. Valente is an amazing and well-prepared professor. For a moderately difficult course, she made it much easier/simpler through her organization and enthusiasm for the content. She's also very accessible to students outside of class and has been extremely understanding with all that is going on right now. I don't have any grievances, only good things to say!

(PAF 3401) She is a great professor. Always helpful and push us to higher our grades. I would definitely take her again if possible.

(PAF 3401) Thank you for a great semester and making it happen regardless of the situation.
